

Here to help

Origin Housing's assessment and support service for general needs social housing tenants

Great homes
Positive people
Strong communities

originHOUSING

Who can qualify?

If you live in general needs social housing and are:

- a new tenant;
- worried about a friend or neighbour who is an Origin Housing tenant;
- or if you are going through a tough time yourself - we can help.

Providing support

If you live in one of our general needs social housing properties, Origin Housing has a dedicated Assessment and Support team who can meet with you, once you have been referred, to discuss your possible support needs. We will draw up a support plan to help you maintain your tenancy or help you settle into your new home. We can provide long and short term assistance.

It is about your needs and helping you with:

- harassment;
- debt;
- isolation;
- maintaining tenancy;
- benefits and maximising income;
- accessing other local services within the community;
and more.

How is support provided?

Through working with tenants through a regularly reviewed support plan. Time and venues of meetings will be arranged to suit tenants where possible.

Who can apply for assessment and support?

Origin Housing encourages referrals from:

- Origin tenants
- friends and family
- housing staff
- social services and GPs
- housing support and re-housing teams
- community teams
