What is Outreach?

Origin Housing provides support to people with a learning disability who live in their own homes in Westminster.

“ I’m travelling on the bus! ”

Living in London’s busiest Borough can be a challenge. From St John’s to Pimlico, from Covent Garden to Queens Park, Origin’s Outreach team have been dedicated to helping people get the most out of their lives.

How can I get Outreach Support?

If you have a learning disability, and you live in your own home within Westminster, then you will need to get social services to refer you to us.

We will arrange to meet so we can discuss what support you would like to receive.

If your application is successful then Origin's staff will begin working with you promptly.

What kind of support do we offer?

- We can help you apply for the benefits to which you may be entitled
- We can help you to plan, budget and manage your money and your bills
- We can help you access services in the community
- We can offer support with independent living skills
- We can help you achieve your goals
